

How to Stop Malwarebytes Notifications?

Malwarebytes notifications can be annoying, especially when you are working on the most important tasks. These pop-ups distract your focus, resulting in major interruptions in your productivity.

Malwarebytes notifications often show up when you are using a non-paid version. It may display repeated pop-ups encouraging you to upgrade to a premium version. Some notifications can also slow down your system by consuming resources. Turning off these pop-ups reduces distractions and improves system performance.

So, how can you stop Malwarebytes notifications? Here is a step-by-step guide. Keep reading to uncover the instructions.

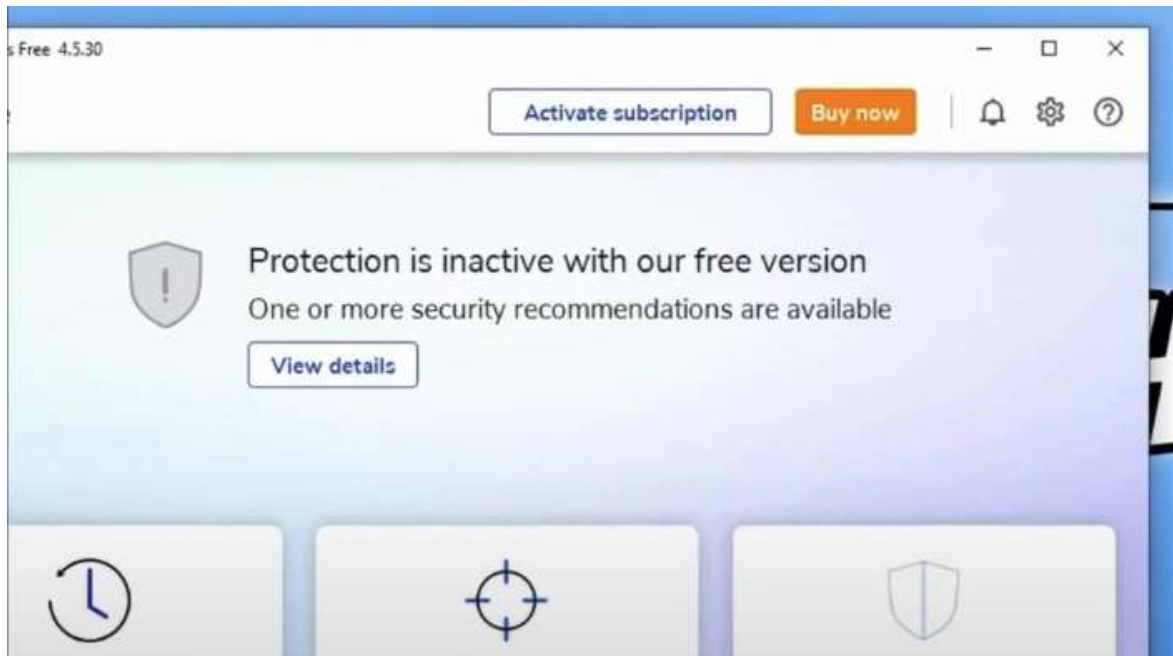

Possible Issues When Turning Off Malwarebytes Notifications

Here are some issues that might occur when disabling Malwarebytes notifications:

- Promotional notifications
- Trial expired notifications
- Play mode

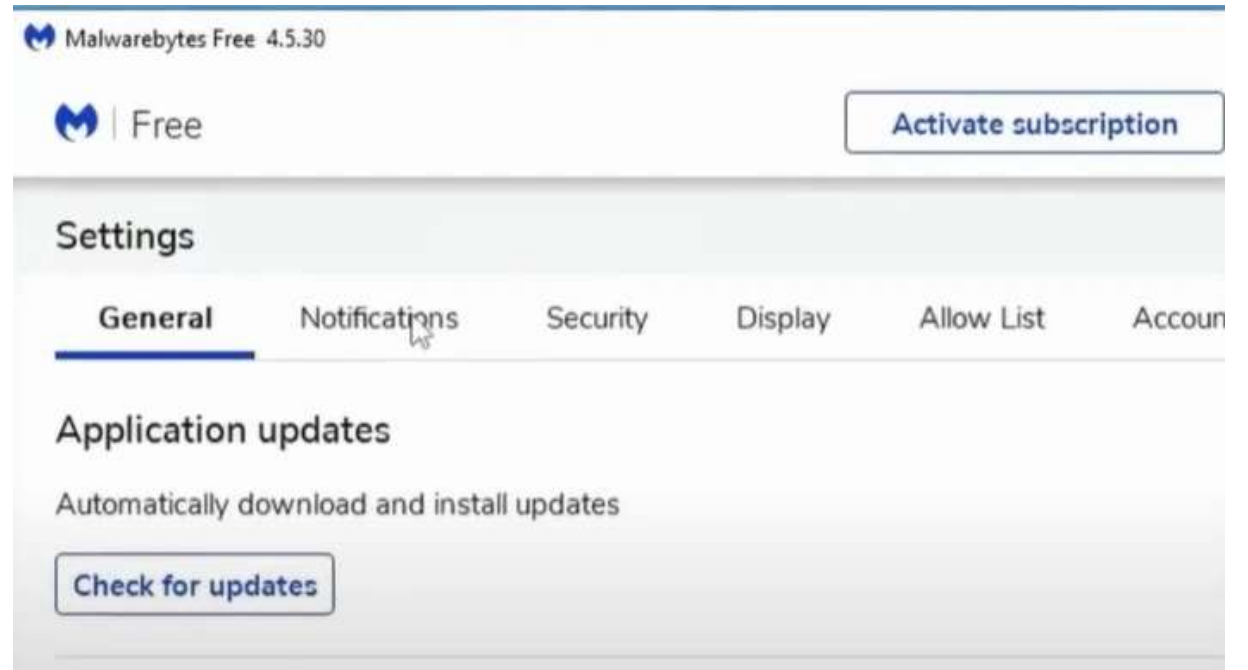

Steps to Stop Malwarebytes Notifications

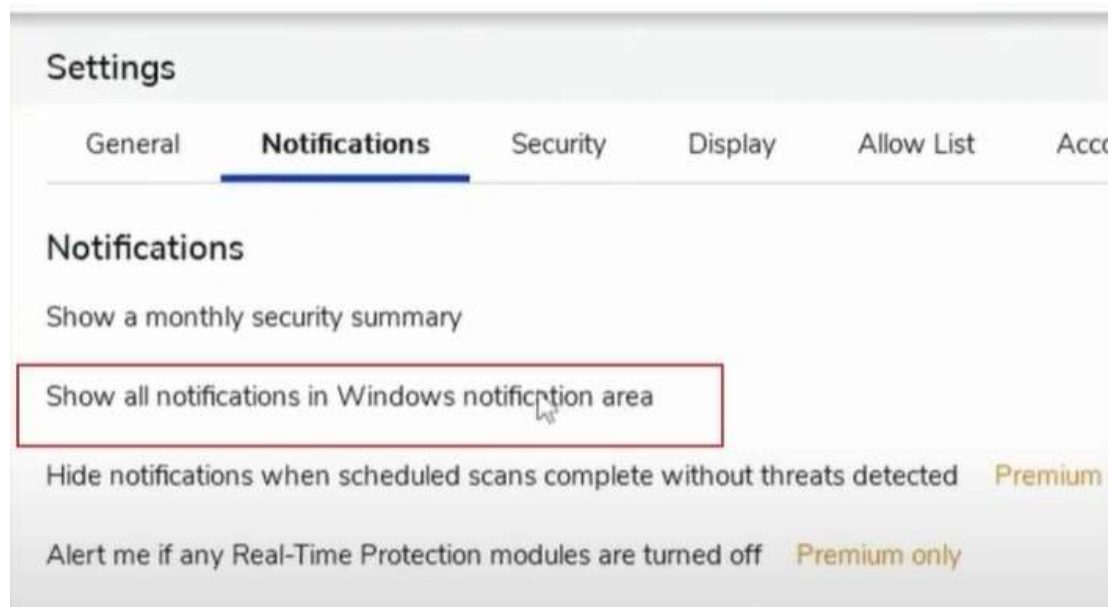

Follow all these essential steps to turn off Malwarebytes notifications on your computer:

Step 1: Open Malwarebytes and click the settings icon in the top right corner.

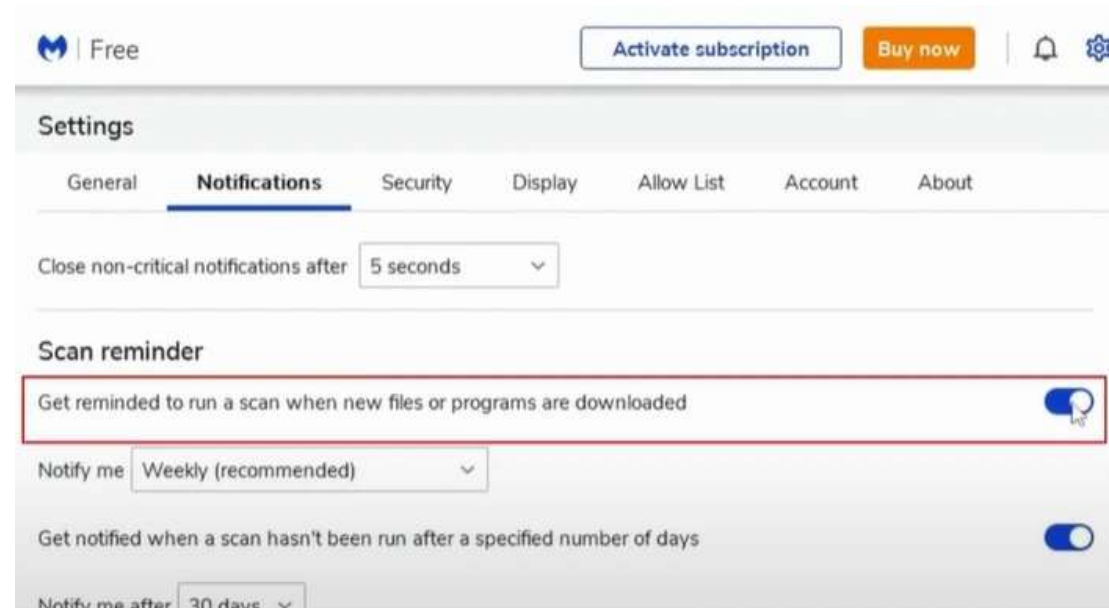

Step 2: Go to the Notifications tab, then toggle off the “Show a monthly security summary” notification.

Step 3: Turn off the “Show all notifications in the Window notification area” notification.

Step 4: Scroll to the Scan Reminder section, then turn off all the reminders and notifications.

In Conclusion

Here, we end this how to stop Malwarebytes notifications guide. Disabling Malwarebytes pop-ups will help you stay focused on your tasks without interruptions. Have a hassle-free user experience while playing games, watching movies, or giving presentations.

Call an expert if you struggle to turn off Malwarebytes notifications from appearing on your computer.

CONTACT INFORMATION

<https://antivirustales.com/knowledgebase/stop-malwarebytes-notifications>

US +1-857-557-6826

info@antivirustales.com